THE IMPORT DUTIES OF CUSTOMS LEVIABLE ON WHEAT AND FLOUR.

1949
Cap. 304.

[2nd June, 1938.]

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Wheat and Flour (Import Duties of Customs Variation) Law.

Interpretation.

2. In this Law—

“ flour ” means flour of wheat, rye or maize and includes crushed wheat and semolina.

Power of Governor in Council to increase or reduce duties of Customs on wheat
and flour.

3. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other Law contained the Governor in Council may from time to time by Order increase or reduce the import duties of customs leviable and recoverable on wheat or flour imported into the Colony under the provisions of any Law.

(2) Whenever an Order has been made under the provisions of this section, the import duties of customs on wheat or flour, as increased or reduced thereby shall, for so long as such Order remains in force, be leviable and recoverable in accordance with the provisions of the Law for the time being in force relating to the levying and collecting of such duties.
