Cap. 297
13 of 1950
8 of 1951
31 of 1952
13 of 1953
5 of 1955.

Amendment of section 2
of the principal Law.

2. Section 2 of the principal Law is hereby amended by the insertion therein, in its proper alphabetical place, of the following definition :—

“ ‘earned income’ means income derived from any trade, profession, vocation, employment, pension, charge or annuity;”.

Amendment
of section 16 of the principal Law.

3. Section 16 of the principal Law is hereby amended as follows :—

(a) by the substitution of a semi-colon for the comma occurring at the end of paragraph (c) of sub-section (1) thereof and by the addition of the word “ or ” after the said semi-colon ;

(b) by the insertion in the said sub-section (1) thereof, immediately after paragraph (c), of the following paragraph :—

“ (d) shall have paid a premium or made a contribution under an annuity contract for the time being approved by the Commissioner, and subject to such conditions as he may determine, as having for its main object the provision for the individual of a life annuity in old age;” ;

(c) by the insertion in sub-section (2) thereof, immediately after the word and figures “ December, 1954,” (line 3) of the words and figures “ or in respect of any annuity contract entered into after the first day of January, 1958,”.

Repeal of section 17 of the principal Law and substitution of new section.

4. Section 17 of the principal Law is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor :—

“ Deduction in respect of earned income and certain classes of wife's income.

17.—(1) In ascertaining the chargeable income of any person there shall be allowed a deduction equal to one-tenth of the earned income of such person :

Provided that in cases where the income of a wife is deemed to be income of the husband, any reference in this sub-section to the earned income of a person shall not include any income of the wife in respect of which a deduction is allowable under sub-section (2) of this section.

(2) In ascertaining the chargeable income of any person in which is included any income of his wife derived from any trade, business, profession, vocation or employment, there shall be allowed a deduction equal to the amount of such income of the wife but not exceeding in any case one hundred pounds :

Provided that the deduction shall not be made in any case if the income of the wife is derived from any trade, business, profession or vocation carried on in partnership with her husband or from employment where the employer is her husband or a firm in which he is a partner or a director.

For the purposes of this sub-section the term ‘ business ’ shall include the letting of buildings.”.
